Centre Paul-Langevin 24, rue du Coin - 73500 Aussois aussois@caes.cnrs.fr

To combine work and relaxation

You'll be welcome in Aussois in Savoy, a small mountain village where evolution and authenticity were able to merge, ensuring a life style and an exceptional place to stay.

Dominated by the "Dent Parrachée", one of the highest peaks of La Vanoise, Aussois is located on a sunny plateau at 1500 m altitude, offering a magnificent panorama of the surrounding mountains and a direct access to the park of La Vanoise in summer and downhill ski slopes or cross country slopes in winter.

It is in this delightful setting that the center Paul Langevin is, holiday and conferences center of CAES du CNRS.

An ideal site to combine work and relaxation.

The access

Train: station of Modane (8 km from Aussois), 4 hours from Paris, 2 hours from Lyon, 1h30 from Turin.

Road: Chambéry, then the valley of Maurienne, highway A43 to Modane (Le Freney), 11 km from Aussois. Flight: airports: Annecy, Lyon, Turin, Genève, Chambéry.
